

MMRC Safety Quiz

1. When you bring a chemical or sample into an MMRC Lab how should you label it?

Your name, the date, the chemical name and if a sample a lab book reference.

2. After your experiment is done what do you do with your samples?

You must remove all chemicals and samples and clean up.

3. Can you eat or drink in the instrument labs? NO

4. What clothing do you need to wear in an Instrument Laboratory?

Long pants, shirt to cover upper torso and arms.

5. If you are having trouble using an instrument, what should you do?

Talk to the GLA

6. If you have an emergency what should you do?

Call x5000

7. If an instrument does not work what do you do?

Enter the information in the log book and notify the GLA and Bruce

Brunschwig

8. When a friend accompanies you to the lab can they help you using an instrument

No. They can only help use an instrument they have been trained and approved on.